

Sport

The English English Podcast S01E19

Glossary (in chronological order)

benefits - something that is an advantage scientifically proven - there is scientific evidence to show that something is correct sponsor (sponsorship) - a company or person who contributes money to an activity or sport season ticket - one ticket for a series of events/matches that costs less than buying separate tickets.

a diehard fan - a person who continues to support a team in spite of opposition willing - ready, prepared to do something average - the median or typical value of something

Test your memory... (Or you can cheat and listen to some parts of the podcast again!)

What were some of the benefits of sport, as discussed by the teachers?

What is the price of the most expensive season ticket in England (for Arsenal)?

What are two other sports, apart from football, that could be considered 'a national sport' in Britain?

Conversation Questions

Do you do more or less sport now than when you were younger? Why / why not?

Which sports do you enjoy watching (live or on TV)? Why?

Some people suggest that people who are good at sport are not intelligent. What do you think about this stereotype?